PHILLIP QUINTANA

General Counsel, Unitek College of Nursing

Phillip Quintana serves as General Counsel for Unitek College of Nursing, where he oversees all legal and compliance functions across the organization's family of institutions. In this capacity, he leads initiatives to mitigate institutional risk, ensure compliance with state and federal regulations, and promote a culture of integrity and accountability across all Unitek campuses and programs.

Before joining Unitek, Phillip served as Assistant General Counsel at West Coast University from 2019 to 2022, providing comprehensive legal guidance on institutional, academic, and business matters. Earlier, he spent over a decade with Apollo Education Group as Senior Corporate Counsel and Associate Director of Regulatory Affairs. There, he managed multi-state regulatory authorizations for campuses and programs, served as the primary legal contact for 13 states, and contributed to the drafting of statutory revisions impacting proprietary education in Alabama, Colorado, and Utah.

Phillip holds a Juris Doctor from Mitchell Hamline School of Law. Outside of his legal career, he enjoys pickup basketball, skiing, and watching college sports.
