MAEGAN MURPHY

Senior Vice President, Mountain West Group, Unitek College of Nursing

As Senior Vice President of Special Projects, Maegan Murphy leads operational standardization and enterprise transformation initiatives across the Unitek College of Nursing family of schools. She oversees the unification of campus policies, procedures, and academic calendars to ensure consistency and alignment across all locations.

Maegan is responsible for designing and documenting new standard operating procedures, defining and tracking key performance indicators, and establishing accountability through data-driven reporting. She partners closely with senior executives to shape organizational strategy, align projects with company goals, and drive continuous improvement.

With over 15 years of senior leadership experience, Maegan has established a strong track record of operational excellence, efficiency, and transformation in higher education. Before joining Unitek College of Nursing, she served as Senior Vice President of Operations at Relearnit, Inc., Vice President of Client Engagement at Everspring, and Campus President for both Le Cordon Bleu College of Culinary Arts and Cortiva Institute. She also held leadership positions with Everest College and Kaplan Higher Education, where she launched new programs and achieved measurable gains in performance, retention, and satisfaction.

Maegan holds a Master of Science in Management with a focus on Organizational Leadership and Change from Colorado Technical University, as well as a Bachelor of Arts in English from Eastern Illinois University. She is deeply committed to causes that strengthen families and communities and actively supports organizations such as the Gateway Foundation and NAWS. Outside of work, she enjoys birdwatching, volunteering, and advocating for animal welfare.
